Thank you for choosing to exhibit at the AOSSM 2026 Annual Meeting, taking place July 8–11, 2026 (Exhibit Dates: July 9–10) at the Seattle Convention Center, Arch.

T3 Expo is the Official General Service Contractor for the meeting and will support exhibitor needs including items such as carpet, furniture, freight handling, exhibit booth design and build and other exhibit services.

The Online Exhibitor Service Manual provides access to order forms for all show services. Please note that some services are provided by designated specialty vendors, including:

- Electrical / utilities - Edlen
- Telecommunications and Wi-Fi – SmartCity
- Audio visual and computer rental - Freeman AV
- Lead Retrieval - Martiz

These providers and their order forms are included in the manual, along with important shipping instructions and material handling information for sending materials to and from the event.

We encourage you to review the full manual and note the advance discount deadlines, which can help reduce costs and allow vendors to properly plan equipment and labor schedules assuring a smooth move-in and a successful event experience.
