Exhibitor Social Media Toolkit

These banners are created specifically for social media distribution. We encourage you to include one or more of the advertisements on your social media accounts. These tools will aid in increased traffic to your exhibit during the Symposium.

Use of ASCO Social Media Images

ASCO is offering exhibitors the opportunity to promote their presence at the 2022 ASCO GI Cancers Symposium on social media with the use of ASCO-approved images. These images are the only approved use of the Symposium logo on social media. The files may not be altered in anyway. Please select the appropriate file below.
