SSO 2019 DELIVERS DIVERSITY IN PEOPLE, PERSPECTIVES, EDUCATION AND MORE

On behalf of SSO President, Armando E. Giuliano, MD and the SSO Executive Council, I invite you to join us for SSO 2019, the 72nd SSO Annual Cancer Symposium. SSO 2019 exemplifies the theme, “A Diversity of Expertise. Delivered.” in several ways – diverse attendees, diverse perspectives, diverse education and diverse networking opportunities.

In 2018, the SSO Executive Council appointed an Annual Meeting Reimagination Task Force to explore all components of the event with the purpose of increasing member engagement and meeting the educational needs of the membership. To this end, the SSO 2019 program has been purposely designed to provide practice-changing insight through short, yet efficient, 90-minute sessions. To ensure that the total amount of education has not been reduced, we have created parallel programming that allows a participant to maximize their educational experience. We hope that this new structure will allow for greater networking opportunities.

SSO 2019 sessions cover a broad array of topics – I am particularly excited to see the Practice Change Studies of 2018 symposiums and Integrating Genomics into a Surgical Oncologist’s Practice: From Promise to Reality. The Great Debates are always a draw, and this year should be no different. The debate Should We Stop Offering HIPEC for Colorectal Cancer? features two of the biggest authorities (Paul H. Sugarbaker, MD and Francois Quenet, MD) and will be interesting to attend even if colorectal cancer is not your specialty. And finally, hearing the featured lecturers, Armando E. Giuliano, MD, Monica Morrow, MD and Lieping Chen, MD, PhD is essential.

I look forward to seeing you in San Diego.

Respectfully,

Sanjay P. Bagaria, MD

A Diversity of Education. DELIVERED.

16 SYMPOSIA SESSIONS

Throughout the program, strategically designed by disease-site track, are a wide range of symposia sessions covering current controversies, new developments and pivotal scientific updates.

8 MEET THE PROFESSOR SESSIONS

Featuring speakers of international prominence, Meet the Professor breakfast sessions are small-group discussions that explore challenging issues and provocative topics in surgical oncology.

151 ORAL ABSTRACT PRESENTATIONS

Selected from the best of the best, over 150 thought-provoking abstracts covering leading-edge science and clinical trials have been accepted for oral presentation.

398 POSTERS

This year's poster program will transition to an ePoster format, with the top 25% of posters highlighted with poster boards in the exhibit hall.

GREAT DEBATES

Leading surgeons engage in spirited debate around four controversial and impactful topics:

- BREAST—Should a Patient with a 2cm HER2+/TNBC Clinically Node Negative Receive Neoadjuvant Therapy?
- COLORECTAL—Should We Stop Offering HIPEC for Colorectal Cancer?
- SARCOMA—Primary Approach to Resectable Desmoid Tumor: Operate or Not Operate?
- HPB—Small (<2cm) Neuroendocrine Tumors of the Pancreas: Resect or Observe?

MAXIMIZE THE SSO 2019 EXPERIENCE VIA THE VIRTUAL MEETING

Concurrent sessions, The Great Debates, featured lectures—so much delivered, so little time. View missed sessions and lectures and hear notable speakers a second time around via the SSO 2019 Virtual Meeting, accessible through ExpertED@SSO. To conveniently access the recordings post-event, be sure to add the Virtual Meeting during your SSO 2019 registration process for the discounted attendee rate of $25.
